- 6.3 Subject to article 7, none of the property of the charity may be paid or transferred directly or indirectly by way of dividend, bonus or otherwise by way of profit to any member of the charity. This does not prevent a member who is not also a trustee or connected person receiving a benefit from the charity in the capacity of a beneficiary of the charity, or reasonable and proper remuneration for any goods or services provided to the charity.

7 BENEFITS AND PAYMENTS TO TRUSTEES AND CONNECTED PERSONS

- 7.1 No trustee or connected person may:
- (a) buy any goods or services from the charity on terms preferential to those applicable to members of the public; or
 - (b) sell goods, services, or any interest in land to the charity; or
 - (c) be employed by, or receive any remuneration from, the charity; or
 - (d) receive any other financial benefit from the charity
- unless the payment is permitted by article 7.3, or authorised by the court or the Charity Commission.
- 7.2 In article 7.1 a “financial benefit” means a benefit, direct or indirect, which is either money or has a monetary value.

Scope and powers permitting trustees' or connected persons' benefits

- 7.3 A trustee or connected person may:
- (a) receive benefits such as publications from the charity in the capacity of a member of the charity, provided all other members are entitled to the same benefits;
 - (b) receive a benefit from the charity in the capacity of a beneficiary of the charity, provided that a majority of the trustees do not benefit in this way;

- (c) enter into a contract for the supply of services, or of goods that are supplied in connection with the provision of services, to the charity where that is permitted in accordance with, and subject to the conditions in, section 185 to 186 of the Charities Act ;
- (d) subject to article 7.5, provide the charity with goods that are not supplied in connection with services provided to the charity by the trustee or connected person;

- (f) receive rent for premises let by the trustee or connected person to the charity. The amount of the rent and the other terms of the lease must be reasonable and proper. The trustee concerned must withdraw from any meeting at which such a proposal or the rent or other terms of the lease are under discussion;
- (g) take part in the normal trading and fundraising activities of the charity on the same terms as members of the public;

7.4 Subject to article 8, a trustee or connected person who is employed by or has any other financial relationship with an organisation or institution may receive a direct or indirect benefit arising from:

- (a) a benefit provided by the charity to the organisation or institution as a beneficiary of the charity;
- (b) a benefit provided by the charity to a third party beneficiary of the charity who is associated with the organisation or institution, in particular but not exclusively bursaries or scholarships provided to students or researchers at or associated with the organisation or institution;
- (c) a contract, transaction or arrangement entered into by the charity with the organisation or institution.

Payment for supply of goods only – controls

7.5 The charity and its trustees may only rely upon the authority provided by article 7.3\(d\) if each of the following conditions is satisfied:

- (a) the amount or maximum amount of the payment for the goods is set out in an agreement in writing between the charity or its trustees (as the case may be), and the trustee or connected person supplying the goods (“the supplier”) under which the supplier is to supply the goods in question to or on behalf of the charity;
- (b) the amount or maximum amount of the payment for the goods does not exceed what is reasonable in the circumstances for the supply of the goods in question;
- (c) the other trustees are satisfied that it is in the best interests of the charity to contract with the supplier rather than with someone who is not a trustee or connected person, and in reaching that decision the trustees have balanced the advantage of contracting with a trustee or connected person against the disadvantages of doing so;
- (d) the supplier is absent from the part of any meeting at which there is discussion of the proposal to enter into a contact or arrangement with him or her or it with regard to the supply of goods to the charity;

- (e) the supplier does not vote on any such matter and is not to be counted when calculating whether a quorum of trustees is present at the meeting during such vote;
- (f) the reason for their decision is recorded by the trustees in the minute book; and
- (g) a majority of the trustees then in office are not in receipt of remuneration or payments authorised by article 7.

7.6 In articles 7.3, 7.4 and 7.5, “charity” includes any company in which the charity holds more than 50% of the shares, or controls more than 50% of the voting rights attached to the shares, or has the right to appoint one or more directors to the board of the company.

8 DECLARATON OF TRUSTEES’ INTERESTS

8.1 A trustee must declare the nature and extent of any interest, direct or indirect, which he, she or a connected person has in a proposed transaction or arrangement with the charity or in any transaction or arrangement entered into by the charity which has not previously been declared.

8.2 After providing any information requested by the trustees, a trustee must absent himself or herself from any discussions of the trustees in which it is possible that a conflict will arise between his or her duty to act solely in the interests of the charity and any personal interest (including but not limited to any personal financial interest).

8.3 An interest in which a trustee has no knowledge and of which it is unreasonable to expect him or her to have knowledge shall not be treated as an interest of the trustee.

9 CONFLICTS OF LOYALTIES

9.1 If a conflict of loyalties arises for a trustee because of a duty of loyalty owed to another organisation, institution or person and the conflict is not authorised by virtue of any other provision in the articles, the unconflicted trustees may authorise such a conflict of interests where the following conditions apply:

- (a) the conflicted trustee is absent from the part of the meeting at which there is discussion of any arrangement or transaction affecting that other organisation, institution or person;
- (b) the conflicted trustee does not vote on any such matter and is not to be counted when considering whether a quorum of trustees is present at that part of the meeting; and
- (c) the unconflicted trustees consider it is in the interests of the charity to authorise the conflict of loyalties in the circumstances applying.

9.2 In this article 9 a conflict of loyalties arising because of a duty of loyalty owed to another organisation, institution or person only refers to such a conflict which does not involve a direct or indirect benefit of any nature to a trustee or to a connected person.

- 10.2 Membership is open to individuals who apply to the charity in the form required by the trustees, and are approved by the trustees.

- (b) The trustees must inform the applicant in writing of the reasons for the refusal within twenty-one days of the decision.
- (c) The trustees must consider any written representations the application may make about the decision. The trustees' decision following any written representations must be notified to the applicant in writing but shall be final.

- (c) The trustees may, in rules or bye-laws made under article 47, establish different classes of membership (including non-voting membership), prescribe their respective rights, duties, obligations and privileges, and determine conditions for admission to, and termination of membership of, members.
- (d) The benefits of each class of membership are determined by the trustees and may be changed at any time. Where the change is detrimental to members of a particular class, at least three months' notice must be given.

- 11.2 Other references in these articles to “members” and “membership” do not apply to non-voting members and non-voting members do not qualify as members for any purpose under the Companies Act.
- 11.3 The rights and benefits of membership cease on termination of membership.

12 TERMINATION OF MEMBERSHIP

Membership is terminated if:

- 12.1 the member dies;
- 12.2 the member resigns by written notice to the charity unless, after the resignation, there would be fewer than two members;
- 12.3 any sum due from the member to the charity is not paid in full within six months of it falling due;
- 12.4 the member is removed from membership by a resolution of the trustees that it is in the best interests of the charity that his or her membership is terminated.
- (a) Reasons for removal may include contravening the principles of the charity or the membership code of practice, being removed by a regulatory authority from being able to practice, being found guilty of malpractice, bringing the charity or its members or the profession into disrepute. This list is not exhaustive.
- (b) A resolution to remove a member from membership may only be passed if the member has been given at least fourteen days’ notice in writing of the meeting of the trustees at which the resolution will be proposed and the reasons why it is to be proposed, and the member or, at the option of the member, the member’s representative (who need not be a member of the charity) has been allowed to make representations to the meeting.

- 13.2 The trustees shall determine the level of annual fee, if any, to be paid by associates.

- 15.3 The notice must be in writing and must specify the date, time and place of the meeting and the general nature of the business to be transacted. The notice must also contain a statement setting out the right of members to appoint a proxy under section 324 of the Companies Act and articles 22 and 23.
- 15.4 The notice must be given to all the members, the trustees, and the independent examiner or auditors.

19 REMOTE VOTING

- 19.1 The trustees may, but are not required to, allow voting by post and/or electronically on any resolution put to a general meeting. If postal and/or electronic voting is to be allowed for a meeting, details of how to vote in this way must be included in the notice of the meeting.

- 19.2 The trustees may, in rules or bye-laws made under article 47, determine the procedure for voting by post and/or electronically on any resolution put to a general meeting, including the procedures for counting and verifying votes cast by post and/or electronically and the records to be kept of such votes.
- 19.3 A member who votes by post or electronically and subsequently attends the meeting or, if the meeting is adjourned, a reconvened meeting, is not entitled to vote in person at the meeting, nor is a person who attends the meeting as a proxy for the member.

- 20.5 The declaration by the person who is chairing the meeting of the result of a vote shall be conclusive unless a poll is demanded.
- 20.6 The result of the vote must be recorded in the minutes of the charity but the number or proportion of votes cast, and the number or proportion cast at the meeting or by post or electronically, need not be recorded.

21 POLL

- 21.1 A poll may be demanded by the person chairing the meeting, or by at least two members present in person or by proxy and having the right to vote at the meeting.
- 21.2 A demand for a poll may be withdrawn before the poll is taken, but only with the consent of the person who is chairing the meeting.
- 21.3 If the demand for a poll is withdrawn, the demand shall not invalidate the result of a show of hands declared before the demand was made.
- 21.4 A poll must be taken as the person who is chairing the meeting directs. The chair may appoint scrutineers (who need not be members).

- 21.5 A poll demanded on the election of a person to chair a meeting or on a question of adjournment must be taken immediately.
